INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors Operation FINALLY HOME, Inc. San Antonio, Texas

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Operation FINALLY HOME, Inc., (the Organization) which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Operation FINALLY HOME, Inc. as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the results of its activities, functional expenses and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Organization and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTE A – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization: Operation FINALLY HOME, Inc. (the Organization) was founded in 2005 as a non-profit organization with the mission to provide Americans the ability to honor and thank America's wounded and disabled veterans, first responders and the widows of the fallen. The Organization brings together corporate sponsors, builder associations, builders, developers, individual contributors, and volunteers to help these Veteran Heroes and their families by providing custom-built mortgage-free homes and home modifications.

The past few years have allowed for Operation FINALLY HOME, Inc. to increase its ability to provide more homes and home modifications to more Heroes. During this period, the Organization has held four pillar events for each build that includes an announcement event, ground-breaking ceremony, town hall meeting, and dedication of the home and home modification. The Board of Directors recognizes that to successfully promote the Organization through these events, high travel costs are incurred each year. In addition, in-kind donors are showcased at these events as a form of appreciation to those donors who have a major impact on Operation FINALLY HOME, Inc.'s ability to fulfill its mission.

Basis of Presentation: The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with U. S. generally accepted accounting principles. Net assets, support and revenues, and expenses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Organization and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Without Donor Restrictions: Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor restrictions. Grants and contributions gifted for recurring programs, including those for directly specified Veteran Heroes or geographic regions, are generally not considered "restricted" under GAAP, though for internal reporting the Organization tracks such grants and contributions to verify the disbursement matches the intent. Assets restricted solely through the actions of the Board are reported as net assets without donor restrictions, board designated.

With Donor Restrictions: Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that are more restrictive than the Organization's mission and purpose, that will be met by actions of the Organization and/or the passage of time. Donor imposed restrictions are released when the restriction expires and are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. Grants received with restrictions, and whose restrictions are met in the same fiscal year, are reported as unrestricted in the statement of activities. There were no donor restricted net assets at December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Revenue Recognition: The Organization recognizes contributions and grants either when a valid promise to give (generally in writing) is received or as collected in the case of most smaller denomination gifts. Contributions and grants are reported as without or with donor restriction, depending on the existence and/or nature of any restrictions. Support that is restricted by the donor is reported as an increase in net assets without donor restriction if the restriction expires in the reporting period in which the support is recognized. All other donor-restricted support is reported as an increase in net assets with donor restriction depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires, the net assets are reclassified to net assets without donor restriction. Non-cash contributions are recorded at their fair market value at the date of contribution.

Donated goods and services are reported as "contributed materials and services" by the Organization. Donated goods are recorded at fair value at the time of donation. The value of donated services is based on an amount determined to be appropriate if individuals were employed by the Organization to perform such services and is recorded as contributed services revenue and expense in the period during which the services are rendered.

Cash and Cash Equivalents: Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand and deposits held by financial institutions with maturities of three months or less.

NOTE A – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES – continued

Investments: Investments are reported at fair market value determined by quoted market prices. Gains and losses (realized and unrealized) are reported as investment earnings, net of expenses in the accompanying statements of activities. Donated investment instruments are recorded at fair value at the date of donation.

Accounts Receivable: Accounts receivable are reported at outstanding principal, net of an allowance of $0 at December 31, 2024 and 2023. The allowance is generally determined based on an account-by-account review and historical trends. Accounts are charged off when collection efforts have failed, and the account is deemed uncollectible. The Organization normally does not charge interest on accounts receivable. Accounts receivable, net, totaled $180,044 at January 1, 2023, the beginning of the earliest year presented.

Property and Equipment: Property and equipment is valued at historical cost or estimated fair value at the date of donation. Expenditures for betterments that materially extend the useful life of an asset are capitalized. Depreciation is recorded using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which is generally three to five years for furniture and equipment.

Income Taxes: Operation FINALLY HOME, Inc. is a tax-exempt organization under Internal Revenue Service Code Section 501(c)(3). In addition, the Organization is not a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Donors of money and/or property are entitled to the maximum charitable contribution deduction allowed by law. The Organization is not subject to Texas margin tax. Management is not aware of any tax positions that would have a significant impact on its financial position. Its federal tax returns for the last four years remain subject to examination.

Functional Allocation of Expenses: The costs of providing the services and other activities of the Organization have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of functional expense. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited. These expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include salaries and benefits which are allocated on the basis of estimates of time and effort, as well as depreciation, office and occupancy, which are allocated on square-footage or other reasonable basis. Also see Note H.

Advertising: Advertising and promotion costs are expensed as incurred.

Fundraising and Special Events: Costs associated with special events are netted against the related revenues.

Subsequent Events: Subsequent events have been evaluated by management through the date of the independent auditor's report. Material subsequent events, if any, are disclosed in a separate footnote to these financial statements.

Use of Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U. S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting year. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentrations of Credit Risk: Financial instruments that potentially subject the Organization to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and investments. The Organization places its cash and investments (including restricted assets) with major financial institutions, which from time-to-time may exceed federal insured limits. The Organization had cash balances of approximately $964,000 in excess of the FDIC insured limit at December 31, 2024. Management periodically assesses the financial condition of the institutions and believes the risk of loss is minimal.

Construction and acquisition costs for veterans' homes represent construction costs of homes that will be transferred to veterans upon completion. When constructing a new home, title and ownership of the property is retained by the Organization until such time the Organization transfers ownership to the veteran. Prior to transfer of ownership, costs incurred, and donations of materials and services received for these activities are recorded as an asset of the Organization in the statements of financial position.

To the extent that all significant conditions are met, a liability representing the commitment to transfer the home to a veteran is established in the same amount as the related asset. Upon transfer of ownership, the full cost of the property and the corresponding liability are both reduced to zero. Construction and Acquisition Costs for Veterans' Homes and the related liability Commitment to Transfer Homes to Veterans totaled $449,717 at December 31, 2024 and $288,979 at December 31, 2023.

NOTE I – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

In accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, the Organization utilizes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs for the valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Organization has the ability to access.
- Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:
 - quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets
 - quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets
 - inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability
 - inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means
- Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

NOTE I – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS – continued

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. There have been no changes in the methodologies used nor transfers between levels. Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for investments measured at fair value:

Cash and Money Market Funds (MMFs): Valued at its carry amount due to short-term maturity of the instrument.

Stocks: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market.

Mutual Funds and Exchange Traded Funds: Valued at the daily closing price (net asset value).

Corporate Bonds: Valued using pricing models maximizing the use of observable inputs for similar securities.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Organization believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth, by level within the fair value hierarchy, investments measured at fair value:
